

Virginia Five Beats Catholic

C. U. NO MATCH FOR VIRGINIA FIVE

Red and Black Quint Beaten by "Pop" Lanigan's Boys, 34 to 20.

KEARNS IS THE STAR

Orange and Blue Captain Plays a Great Game—Brooklanders Are Minus Two Regulars.

By C. W. SWAN.

Virginia's basketball team had little trouble in defeating the five from Catholic University last night at the Arcade, winning a rough and tumble battle, 34 to 20.

The Brooklanders were outplayed by the Orange and Blue aggregation from the start and the result was never in doubt. Catholic University was weakened by the absence of two regulars—Loran and Fred Rice—the former being sick in bed, while the latter was hobbling around the floor with a bad ankle. But these stars were in the fray, a different story might have been told.

Kearns, the fast leader of the Charlottesville crew, put up a great game, being in every scrimmage and fighting all the time. Neff also showed up well, catching four balls from short shots. The team work of the Virginia quint was entirely too good, and the men played as a unit. The Orange and Blue team was outplayed by the Brooklanders to the floor. SPORTING SIDELIGHTS

By BILL BAILEY.

Pull out your copy of Whittier's poems and read over "Snow Sound." It will put you in a charitable frame of mind while waiting for the office this morning.

Ed McCarthy will have another one of his clever "Smokedown" ballads, entitled "Rastus at de Game," in to-morrow's edition of The Herald. Read it!

Albe Attell on his way West might stop over in Youngstown to see Hon. Senator Ream and have the large knuckle in his head examined.

Eastern's basketball team did just what was expected of it against Business yesterday afternoon. The Stenographers had too many green men on their team.

When it comes to scrapping for social prestige, Ambassador Field is not afraid to put up his dukes. (Grafted from the Big Stick.)

According to those in close touch with amateur baseball in the District, there will be only six leagues doing regular business this spring and summer.

What's the use of having a piano at the Charlottesville camp without a player. Mike Kehoe should get busy.

Griff doesn't want the baseball writers to live in the same house with his ball players when he goes to Charlottesville. He is going to feed them, however, and that will help some.

Frank Chance is going to play first base again for the Chicago Cubs, he declares. Chance has been hit on the head more times with pitched balls than any other player in the big leagues.

According to President Dreyfus, of the Pittsburgh club, Mickey Keelher, the local and later, has a fair chance of making good. Dreyfus was quoted recently as saying: "The first-base position requires a lot of nerve, and if ought to make a good bid for the place. As far as the other qualifications are concerned, the young man appears to fill the bill."

Those who know Mickey well will vouch for the fact that he possesses the nerve; they feared the other qualities were lacking.

HILLTOP GOSSIP.

The basketball game scheduled by the Prep for this evening has been called off on account of the big game with Virginia and the varsity.

It is practically assured that Randolph Macon will win on the football season here next fall.

Cornell offered the management a date on their football schedule for next fall, but on account of a conflict in dates the game could not be arranged. Another of the big Northern teams, namely, Princeton, has offered a date also, and the date they offered is the Saturday before the Virginia game, and as it was not deemed advisable to play a big game so soon before meeting Virginia, this offer was also turned down.

An offer from two such teams as Cornell and Princeton for games on their football schedule next fall is taken as an indication that Georgetown has forged its way to the front during the past year.

CLEVELAND IN DEMAND.

Both Outlaw Baseball Leagues Claim Ohio City.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 26.—Both outlaw leagues propose to place teams in Cleveland. President Powers, of the Columbus Western circuit, arrived here today and practically made arrangements to place a team at Luna Park. The first year the team will be very much to the minor league. To-night, President William of the United States League, accompanied by Marshall Henderson, of Pittsburgh, arrived here to confer with other local men. The two factions met in a local hotel, each refusing to abandon the field to the other.

BIG ENTRY LIST IN HERALD TOURNEY

More Than 400 Capital Duckpin Bowlers to Compete for Prizes.

The Washington Herald's duckpin bowling tournament, which starts on Thursday night, promises to be the largest and most successful affair of its kind ever attempted in the Capital.

Up to a late hour last night nearly 400 entries in the five-man teams, doubles and singles events had been received. All the best duckpin bowlers of the District will shoot at the little pins for the handsome gold, silver, and bronze medals.

Harry Kraus, of the Palace team in the National Capital League, recognized as the best tenpin bowler in the District, has not only entered with his team, but will take the mark in the doubles and singles.

Entries close tonight, at midnight, and during the next few days the work of compiling the schedule will take place. It is hoped to publish the complete schedule in the Tuesday edition of The Washington Herald.

In deference to the wishes of a number of local duckpin bowlers, the rules as published in the Sunday issue of The Washington Herald regarding the number of times a man could bowl in any of the three events (once in each event) has been modified to the extent of permitting a bowler to bowl several times in bowl with each team in the five-man event.

In the cases of such bowlers their scores in the first team event will be computed for the total for nine games for the high total, of which a handsome medal is offered.

In the doubles and singles, however, the rule remains unchanged. No bowler can bowl more than once in either of these events.

Entries will positively close on Saturday at 12 p. m., and will not be received after that date. Bowlers are again requested to be sure to give more than one data for each event, as it is not always possible to accommodate teams and individuals on the date preferred by them.

GRIFFITH SPEAKS TO Y. M. C. A. LADS

WINS MAIDEN RACE.

Jeane Porter Captures Event for Two-year-olds at Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., Jan. 26.—C. C. Ford's Jeane Porter won his maiden race for the first two-year-old event ever run at the Charleston track to-day. Guy Bedwell's Force was neglected in the final event for Montague, but the Bedwell horse proved an easy winner. Force was the only long shot of the day to win, and form players had a good day. Force closed at 5 to 1, and made the fastest time far made here, covering the mile in 1:15.

Elizabeth Harwood won the fourth race easily. Emperor William came back with a close victory over Camille. Two cars of horses from Norfolk, including the Beverick and Flynn stables, arrived to-day.
